

February 19, 1975

got...I am questioning the date of 1976 in there and am wondering if it shouldn't be 1977, on Final Reading. You are saying at the start of the regular session in 1976 and that will be before the people will even have had a chance to vote on this Constitutional Amendment. I am wondering if that should be 1977. I just bring that to your attention before we get started here.

SENATOR MAHONEY: Fine. In the meantime, I will check with Emory in the bill drafting to be sure.

SENATOR BARNETT: Shall we pass over it, then?

SENATOR MAHONEY: Thank you. Fine.

SPEAKER: We will pass over LB 12, Constitutional Amendment. We will now take up reading on LB 17, Constitutional Amendment. The Clerk will read.

CLERK: LB 17. Final Reading. Read.

(Machine turned off)

SPEAKER: Senator Barnett, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR BARNETT: Just to announce to the body that Senator Mahoney had Emory Burnett in here and he has verified this and it was a misunderstanding on my part and some of the other people in this area. We are perfectly happy to let the bill take its Final Reading now.

SPEAKER: Do you mean to tell me this happened during Final Reading, sir? The Clerk will read. LB 12, Constitutional Amendment.

(Machine turned off)

SPEAKER: For what purpose do you arise, Senator DeCamp?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, to ask unanimous consent to unbracket LB 77 so I can make a motion to move it back to Select File for a specific amendment.

SPEAKER: Unanimous consent has been asked for, do I see any objections? Seeing none, the bill has been unbracketed.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, I now move that LB 77 be moved back to Select File for specific amendment and I think there is complete agreement that this amendment needs to be put on at this time.

SPEAKER: The clerk will recognize Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President, members of the body, I just want to relate to the body that I do agree to the amendment that Senator DeCamp is going to be wanting to apply to the bill.

SPEAKER: The question is, shall LB 77 be returned back to Select File for a specific amendment. Have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 37 ayes, 0 nays, 12 not voting on the motion to return, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: The bill has been returned. Senator DeCamp.
